eradication of Corruption Act as amended by Act No. 20 of 2001 on the Eradication of Corruption (Act No. 31 of 1991 jo. Act No. 20 of 2001) that any person who acts unlawfully enrich themselves or another person or a corporation that could harm the state finance and economy of the country.

Efforts to overcome Corruption by law enforcement can be done by way of prevention (preventive) and prevention (repressive). Prevention efforts by way of action (preventive) is to use the effort to imprisonment or non-penal efforts like improving social and economic conditions of society, raise awareness in the discipline of law and improving moral education community. While efforts are repressive crime prevention efforts through the "penal" more focused on the nature of the "repressive" (enforcement, eradication, crushing) by means of criminal after the crime occurred.⁴

Indonesia is intensifying efforts to prevent the occurrence of Corruption Act in accordance with the enactment of Presidential Instruction No. 7 of 2015 on the Prevention and Combating of Corruption Action which among other things is intended to increase efforts to prevent corruption in government agencies. One of the efforts to prevent Corruption in question is to create a Guards Team of Security Government and Regional Development. Guards Team of Security Government and Regional Development itself by decree Attorney General of Republic of Indonesia Number: KEP-152 / A / JA / 10/2015 dated October 1, 2015. Attorney of the Republic Indonesia is the Law Enforcement Institutions that have an important role in supporting the success of governance and national development.⁵
